You Become The God You Worship In Your Heart

"What god do you worship? Some people worship money in their hearts deep within, not Me, My son. Their heart is transformed into a heart as cold as gold, for they worship Me not, but money. Your heart is transformed into that of what you worship. If you worship Me, the Living God, you get transformed into Me, the Christ of the Living God. You get to become like Me, Jesus. That is what I want you to be, exactly like Me. Some people want to be like the Devil– they eat not from Me but from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, and they become exactly like the Devil himself, because he loves knowledge of the men of evil themselves, not Me. They love evil, the demons too, because they were cut off from life– never again will they eat from the tree of life. They love the knowledge of man apart from Me– that is what they live for, to corrupt man even further. The Devil and his demons are full of evil, full of the knowledge of depravity, of depraved wisdom. That is all they think about, to transform that to man through the wicked people of his, My son. Then they are transformed into the Devil's image, for whom or what you worship is what you are transformed into. Some people love knowledge more than My Spirit in their hearts, for what you worship is what you become in your heart. Some people who call themselves Christian want not My Spirit in their hearts, only wisdom of knowledge. They become like the wicked Pharisees of old– wicked men who went to Hell because they opposed Me in all ways. They were not led by My Spirit in their hearts but by the minds of knowledge, My son. They wanted Me not working in their lives, thus they had no love inside. That they could not tolerate. Many religious people want Me not, only religion– many formalities and dead knowledge of religion they are full of but not My Spirit, My son. They become like the god they worship– dead with no life at all within themselves. They are dead forever because they only want a form of godliness that they can control, not Me, the Living God of eternity. They become what they worship– the knowledge from the tree of good and evil, and are eventually transformed into Satan himself, the god they worship deep inside. They want no love or the tree of life of My Spirit, and are an abomination before Me, My son. Many Baptists are like that– they want Me not, only the formality of religion. Come out of dead religion, My people, and be transformed into My Image, Christ, by the indwelling Spirit in your hearts. Only I can transform you into My Image by receiving My Spirit's Baptism, and letting Him work in your lives, My people. Receive Him by baptism, and be full of My Spirit and His life, not the formality of dead religion. Only He can give you the life you need, and transform your hearts into the living sacrifices before Me forever. Only I can transform you from death unto life. Your LORD has spoken, amen."
